Index Volume 25 (1981)

Subjects

Aboriginal culture (American Indian), understanding —, 143-54.
Achievement and self-esteem, 121.
Acquatic ape theory, 67-9.
Addiction, drug — in Massachusetts, 203-21.
Adjustment (adult), failure in, 117-21.
Adolescent offenders and crisis, 23-30; and parental supervision, 218-21; and school for truants, 130-8; and sexual behavior, 31-9; and socialization, 114-21.
Adult adjustment, failure in, 117-21.
Alcoholism and hypnosis, 12-21.
American Indians, counseling, 129-55.
Anxiety
and emotional growth, 23-4; and hyperventilation, 67-9.
Assessment
guideline for — (juvenile sexual offenders), 31-9; of mentally disordered offenders, 53-9; — system for risk/need clients, 248-53.
Attitude (cognitive) modification for depression, 175-7.
Australia, Victorian Children's Court Clinic, 60-6 & 232.

Bail program (Toronto), 156-67.
Birth order and young offenders, 60-6 & 232.
Boston, homicide in, 40-6.
Bridgewater State Hospital, 43.

Canada, Toronto Bail Program, 156-67.
Cherokees (American Indians) counseling —, 148-50.
Child development, basic consideration in, 114-5.
"Child in Need of Services" (Massachusetts), 77-80.
Child murderers, 40.
Child upbringing
and family therapy, 81-9; and reality, 24-30.
Childhood disturbance, 81-9.
Children
conjoint treatment of parents and —, 81-9; and dyslexia, 107-9; and family crises, 254-65; — victims of violence, helping, 254-64.
Classification system of risk/need clients, 248-53.
Cognitive attitude modification for depression, 175-7.
Community resources (Toronto Bail Program), 164-7.
Constructive utilization of crises, 23-30.
Counseling American Indians, 139-55.
Criminal behavior and the question of values, 273-89; and truancy, 130-8.
Criminal psychiatry and hypnosis, 11-22.
Crises
constructive utilization of, 23-30; family —, nature of, 254.

Delinquency
and social development, 115-7; and the question of values, 273-89.
Delinquents
poor learning habits of, 103-13; and social development, 116-7.
Depressed person, interviewing —, 176-7.
Depression, cognitive attitude modification for, 176-7.
Detainees, emotional problems of, 47.
Diagnostic evaluation of disturbed pre-school children, 81-9.
Dissociation, 175-6.
Disturbed criminals and post-homicide reaction, 47-52.
Diving reflex, 67-9.
Drug addiction in Massachusetts, 203-21; and murder, 43-6.
Drug addicts and their status and role in the street, 233-47.
Drug use, pattern of, 240-7.
Dyslexia and delinquency, 107-8.

Educational program in prison, 168-74.
Emotional development and anxiety, 24-30.
Emotional problems of detainees, 47.
Evaluation, diagnostic — of disturbed pre-school children, 81-9.

Family in crisis, helping —, 254-64.
Family size and birth order of young offenders, 60-6 & 232.
Family Support Center, 259-64.
Family therapy with parents and their pre-school children, 81-9.
Folie-à-deux, 40.
Frustration, low tolerance for —, 119.

Gambling, compulsive, 90-2.
Ganser syndrome and prisoners, 50-2.
Goals of psychotherapy, 268-9.
Group counseling, 139-43.
Group therapy with American

Indians, considerations involved in, 139-55.

Habit training, 24-8.
Habits, change of, 23-30.
Helping family in crisis, 254-64.
Harmony ethic vs protestant ethic, 143-6.
Heroin addiction, the effect of, 210-6.
Hostility against authority figure, 119.
Hyperventilation and anxiety, 67-9.
Hypnosis
in criminal psychiatry, 11-22; and the sober alcoholic, 15-21; and rape victims, 12-5.

Identity of drug addicts in the street, 233-47.
Indians (American)
aboriginal culture of Cherokees, 148-50; Marginal, 147-8; Plains Sioux, 150-2; traditional, 146-7; counseling —, 139-55.
Inmates, training prison — in social work, 168-74.
Interviewing depressed patients, 176-7.
I.Q. tests, impact of, 110-3.
Isaac Ray Center, 53-9.

Judgement, developing, 25-30.
Juvenile delinquency and parental supervision, 218-21; and socialization, 114-21; and truancy, 130-8.
Juvenile offenders and CHIN, 77-80; and family size, 60-6; poor learning habits of —, 103-13; socialization of —, 114-21; and special school for truants vs probation, 130-8.
Juvenile sexual offenders assessment of, 31-9; treatment for, 265-72.

Lawrence District Court Clinic (Massachusetts), 103-13.
Learning development and identity crisis, 108-9.

Massachusetts
"Child in Need of Services", 77-80; drug addiction in —, 203-21; probation system in —, 248-53.
May Enquiry (England), 226.
Mentally disordered offenders, treatment program for —, 53-9.
Methadone maintenance, 211-5.
Murder
child —, 40; of family member, 254-64; and sexual violence, 42-3.

Narcissism, 119.
Narcotic addicts
in Massachusetts, 203-21; and murder, 43; and sexual violence, 41; and their status and role in the street, 233-47.
Neurotic factors, 124.
Neuroticism and offenders, 122-9.

Offenders
juvenile sexual —, assessment of, 31-9; juvenile sexual —, treatment of, 265-72; and neuroticism, 122-9; and the question of values, 273-89; and social work training in prison, 168-74; violent —, treatment program for, 53-9.
Ohio, shock probation in, 70-6.

Parental supervision and delinquency, 218-21.
Parents
and child development, 114-5; and child upbringing, 24-30; and children victims of family violence, 254-64; conjoint treatment of — and pre-school children, 81-9; and juvenile delinquency, 218-21; and truancy, 130-8.
Perception
and school learning, 106-7; and socialization, 114-21.
Personality disorder and the American Indians, 139-55; and children victims of family violence, 254-64; and the constructive utilization of crises, 23-30; and the development of social attitude, 114-21; and the juvenile sexual offender, 265-72; and the offender, 122-9; and school failure, 103-13; and suicide in prison, 187-8.
Physical abuse and disturbed children, 254-64.
Poland, prisoners' rights in, 178-86.
Post-homicide psychotic reaction, 47-52.
Prison
in England, 222-31; — overcrowding, 122 & 225; — personnel, 222-31; suicide in, 187-8; training — inmates in social work, 168-74; and the violent offender patient, 53-9.
Prison depression
and overcrowding, 122-9; and suicide in prison, 187-8.
Prison education programs, 168-74.
Prison Governor, the role of, 222-31.
Prison inmates, training — in social work, 168-74.
Prison officers in England, 222-31.
Prison overcrowding
in England, 122 & 225; and neuroticism, 122-9.

Prisoners
and the constructive utilization of crises, 23-30; and post-homicide psychotic reaction, 47-52; — rehabilitation in prison, 225 & 230; — rights rights in Poland, 178-86; and shock probation (Ohio), 70-6; — suicide, 187-8; training of — in social work, 168-74.
Prisoners' rights in Poland, 178-86.
Probation
— resources and classification (Massachusetts), 248-53; — vs special school for truants (Australia), 130-8; shock — in Ohio, 70-6.
Protestant ethic vs harmony ethic, 143-6.
Psychoactive drugs, the effects of, 209-10.
Psychotherapy
with American Indians, 139-55; with children victims of family violence, 254-64; constructive utilization of crises in, 23-30; with juvenile sexual offenders, 265-72; and neuroticism, 122-9; with parents and preschool children, 81-9; objective of, 265-72; and poor learning habits of delinquents, 103-13; — in prison, 168-74 & 225-30; and the question of values, 273-89; with rape victims, 12-5; with the sober alcoholic, 19-21; and social development, 114-21; and status and role in the street of drug addicts, 233-47; with violent offender patients, 53-9.
Psychotic reaction, post-homicide —, 47-52.

Rape
victims of — and hypnosis, 115-; and violent offenders, 42-3.
Rehabilitative education in prison, 168-74.
Relationship therapy, 251-2.
Restlessness, mental, 120.

School attendance
and social development, 116-7; and truancy, 130-8.
School failure
and delinquency, 103-13; and truancy, 130-8.
School learning and perception, 106-7.
School (special) for truants vs. probation, 130-8.
Self-esteem and achievement, 121.
Sexual offenders assessment of, 31-9; and murder, 43-4; treatment of, 265-72.
Shock probation in Ohio, 70-6.
Social attitude, development of, 117.
Social classes and delinquency, 283.
Social development and delinquency, 116 & 273-89; during adult years, 117; and school attendance, 116-7 & 130-8.
Social work, training prison inmates in, 168-74.
Socialization
and its disturbances, 114-21; and poor learning habits of delinquents, 103-13; of truants, 130-8; and values, 273-89.
Status and role of drug addicts, implication for treatment personnel, 233-47.
Suicide in prison, 187-8.

Truancy, problems of, 130-1.
Truants, the effect of committal to special schools, 130-8.
Treatment (see also psychotherapy)
of American Indians, 139-55; of disturbed youths, 114-21; goals of, 265-73; of juvenile sexual offender, 265-72; of parents and their preschool children, 81-9; in prison, 225-90; and the question of values, 273-89; of the sober alcoholic, 1921; of victims of rape, 12-9; of violent offenders, 53-9.

Values, delinquency and the question of, 273-89.
Victims
helping — of violent family, 254-64; helping — of rape, 12-9.
Victorian Children's Court Clinic (Australia), 60-6.
Violence in the family, 254-64.
Violent patients, treatment program for, 53-9.
Visual memory span of poor learners, 107.
Volition, 24.

Authors and Title

Allen, H. E. — See Vito, G. F. & Allen, H. E., 70-6.
Arboleda-Florez, J.: Post-Homicide Psychotic Reaction, 47-52.

Beckerman, A. — See Fontana, L. & Beckerman, A., 168-74.
Bellermann, H. J.: "Child in Need of Services" in Massachusetts: Does the New System Work?, 77-80.
Biles, D. & Challinger, D.: Family Size and Birth Order of Young Offenders, 60-6 & 232.
Braithwaite, J. & Braithwaite, V.: Delinquency and the Question of Value, 273-89.
Burtch, B. E.: Suicide in Prison, 87-8.

Cavanaugh, J. L. — See Rogers, R. & Cavanaugh, J. L., 53-56.
Challinger, D. — See Biles, D. & Challinger, D., 60-6 & 232.
Cholst, S.: The Acquatic Ape Theory, the Diving Reflex, Anxiety and Hyperventilation, 67-9.
: Cognitive Attitude Modification for Depression, 175-7.
Cochran, D.: Risk/Need Client Classification System, 248-53.

Farmer, G. W.: Shock Probation in Ohio: Commentary, 75-6.
Fontana, F. & Beckerman, A.: Training Prison Inmates in Social Work, 148-74.
Fox, S. Sutherland: Families in Crisis: Reflections on the Children and Families of the Offender and Offended, 354-64.
French, L.: Counseling American Indians, 139-55.

Groth, A. N.; Hobson, W. F.; Lucey, K. P. & St. Pierre, J.: Juvenile Sexual Offenders: Guidelines for Treatment, 265-72.
Groth, A. N. & Loredo, C. M.: Juvenile Sexual Offenders: Guidelines for Assessment, 31-9.

Hobson, W. F. — See Groth, A. N. & at al, 265-72

Kraus, J.: The Effects of Committal to a Special School for Truants, 130-8.

Loredo, C. M. — See Groth, A. N. & Loredo, C. M., 31-9.
Lucey, K. P. — See Groth, A. N. at al, 265-72.

Morris, R.: Toronto Bail Program, 156-67.

Rizzo, N. D.: Can Everyone be Rehabilitated?, 40-6.
: Poor Learning Habits of Delinquents, 103-13.
: Drug Addiction Ten Years Later, 203-21.
Rogers, R. & Cavanaugh, J. L.: A Treatment Program for Potentially Violent Offender Patients, 53-9.
Rosenthal, P. A. & Rosenthal, S.: Conjoint Treatment of Parents and their Pre-School Children, 81-9.
Rzeplinski, A.: Prisoners' Rights in Poland, 178-86.

St. Pierre, J. — See Groth, A. N. et al, 265-72.
Schmideberg, M.: The Constructive Utilization of Crises, 23-30.
: Socialization and its Disturbances, 114-21.
Scott, E. M.: Hypnosis in Criminal Psychiatry, 11-22.

Thomas, J. E.: From Caprice to Anarchy: The Role of the Prison Governor, 222-31.

Vito, G. F. & Allen, H. E.: Shock Probation in Ohio: A comparison of Outcomes, 70-6.

Washbrook, R. A. H.: Neuroticism and Offenders, 122-9.
Weppner, R. S.: Status and Role among Narcotic Addicts: Implications for Treatment Personnel, 233-47.